

Job Description

Job Title: Supervisor Public Procurement

Job Summary:

The incumbent is required to co-ordinate and supervise the work of professional and other support staff engaged in the provision of procurement and disposal services in a Ministry/Department, under the direction of a senior officer. Work includes contributing to the formulation of the procurement and disposal strategic plan; participating in the development and management of related programmes and projects; overseeing the implementation of performance management systems related to public procurement and disposal; collaborating on the development of tender documents; developing training and information programmes; liaising with the Office of Procurement Regulation on procurement and disposal issues and making recommendations for the revision or development of new policies and procedures.

Reports To:	Manager, Public Procurement or a designated officer
Supervision Given To:	Public Procurement Officer and other support staff

Duties and Responsibilities:

- 1. Co-ordinates and supervises the work of a group of professional and Co-ordinates and supervises the work of a group of professional and other support staff engaged in the provision of procurement and disposal services in a Ministry/Department.
- 2. Contributes to the formulation of the procurement and disposal strategic plan.
- 3. Participates in the development and management of the procurement and disposal programmes and projects to support the achievement of the objectives stated in the procurement and disposal strategic plan.
- 4. Consults with the Office of Procurement Regulation to obtain advice and guidance on the interpretation and application of procurement and disposal legislation, policies, and procedures.
- 5. Oversees the implementation of procurement and disposal activities to ensure that suppliers and contractors are in compliance with the Public Procurement and Disposal of Property Act.
- 6. Oversees the implementation of the performance management system related to public procurement and disposal in the Ministry/Department.
- 7. Collaborates with the Manager to develop tender documents and monitors and reviews other procurement activities.
- 8. Oversees the activities involved in the implementation of measures to identify and prevent fraudulent practices.
- 9. Oversees the maintenance of the public procurement database of the Ministry/Department which is linked to the centralised database of the Office of Procurement Regulation.
- 10. Drafts preliminary budgetary estimates of expenditure for the Procurement and Disposal Unit in collaboration with the Manager.
- 11. Develops procurement and disposal related training and information programmes in consultation with the Manager.
- 12. Provides advice, guidance and support on complex procurement and disposal issues, pertaining to the interpretation and application of relevant legislation, policies, procedures, rules and regulations.
- 13. Reviews and analyses reports, proposals, draft Notes for Cabinet, circulars and other documents for accuracy and makes appropriate amendments.
- 14. Drafts Notes for Cabinet, reports and other documents in relation to complex assignments and submits reports and/or recommendations, as required.
- 15. Collates client feedback, information on trends and existing procurement and disposal policies and procedures and recommends revision or the development of new policies and procedures.
- 16. Reviews, develops and maintains relevant procurement and disposal procedural manuals and other procurement and disposal planning tools.

- 17. Serves as a resource person on procurement and disposal matters at training courses, seminars and workshops.
- 18. Represents the Ministry/Department on committees and at meetings, conferences and other fora, as required.
- 19. Performs other related duties

Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities

Knowledge

- Considerable knowledge of the principles, practices, methods and techniques of procurement and disposal management.
- Considerable knowledge of legislation, policies, procedures, rules and regulations related to public procurement and disposal management.
- Knowledge of research methods, principles and techniques.
- Knowledge of supply market operations.
- Knowledge of the principles and methods of strategic planning and project management.
- Knowledge of relevant computer applications, including e-procurement.
- Basic knowledge of the principles of fraud detection or forensic analysis.

Skills and Abilities

- Sound investigative, analytical, critical thinking, problem solving and decision-making skills
- Ability to co-ordinate the activities of a group of professional and other support staff.
- Ability to use e-procurement software applications.
- Ability to analyse and evaluate data and trends and make informed recommendations.
- Ability to interpret legislation, policies, procedures, rules and regulations pertaining to the procurement and disposal of public property.
- Ability to think critically, solve complex problems and make decisions within approved policy frameworks.
- Ability to meet critical deadlines.
- Ability to exercise tact and diplomacy in the performance of duties.
- Ability to maintain confidentiality and integrity in the performance of duties.
- Ability to communicate effectively both orally and in writing.
- Ability to prepare comprehensive reports and policy documents.
- Ability to establish and maintain effective working relationships with associates and other stakeholders.

Minimum Experience and Training

- Considerable experience in the area of procurement management including at least two (2) years at a supervisory level.
- Training as evidenced by a recognised degree in Management Studies, Public Sector Management,
 Finance, law, Economics or Marketing; supplemented by certification in Procurement and Supply, Procurement Management or Supply Chain Management from an accredited institution; or any equivalent combination of experience and training.